

1- Day Workshop

Report on Android Programming Workshop

Objective:

The main objective of this technical event is to introduce the students with android programming. Students will learn to design android programming and they will also learn about the emulator and how emulator works in android programming development. This workshop will help the students to equip the essential skills they require regarding android programming in the future.

Key Points:

- Introduction to android programming.
- Graphics and Animation
- Broadcast Receiver
- Multimedia & Database.

Subjects Covered:

- Introduction to android programming and it's environments
- How emulator works in Mobile Application Development

- Java and Xml for android application

Expert:

Amanat Ansari
(Assistant Professor)

SRPEC, UNJHA.

Workshop Participants:

Total 25 students have participated in the workshop. Where they have learned and practiced basics of android programming and their environments. Also they have learned useful extensible markup language for mobile application and developments.