

Department of Computer Engineering

7th Sept 2018

SMT. S. R. PATEL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

Workshop Report

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON “JAVA PROGRAMMING”

Objectives:

Generally students have knowledge about programming languages but they don't know how to develop applications.

Each student know at least one programming language but they don't have knowledge how to use their programming skill practically.

The main objective of this workshop to improve the java programming skill of the students so that they could make effective user friendly java applications

Course Instructors:

Personalities from SRPEC were invited for expert lecture The key instructors was:

Mr. Himanshu Khurana
Ass. Professor Computer Department.

On the day

Expert start from introduction of java programming. Expert had also aware the students how to develop java application. They explained different types of packages or frameworks used in java programming.

Summary:

This workshop was organized by our institute knowledgeable faculty member to illustrate the complete structure of core java programming.

They developed some java application for better understanding of java programming

Students got the opportunity how to develop java application.

Course Participant

Workshop was fully organized for all the students of Computer Engineering as well as other streams.

Semester	Total No. of students
V	25
VII	4