

Department of Computer Engineering

7th Sept 2018

SMT. S. R. PATEL ENGINEERING COLLEGE

Workshop Report

ONE DAY WORKSHOP ON “WEB DESIGNING”

Objectives:

Today's world web designing is the important part of software field.

Huge number of user connected to internet and use different type of websites for data surfing.

Various website provides similar information according to user requirements but user use only those websites which provides user friendly environment.

The main objective of this workshop is to design effective or user friendly web pages.

Course Instructors:

Personalities from SRPEC were invited for expert lecture. The key instructors are:

1. Mr. Mukesh Soni

Ass. Professor Computer Department.

On the day

Expert start from introduction of HTML and CSS. Expert had also aware the students how to design web pages using with different style sheets.

Summary:

This workshop was organized by our institute knowledgeable senior faculty member to illustrate designing of web pages using different HTML and CSS.

They explain to students with some example how to design websites.

Students got the opportunity how to design web page.

Course Participant

Workshop was fully organized for all the students of Computer Engineering as well as other streams.

Semester

Total No. of students

I

15

III

35